Dear Rosemary,

In the beginning let me assure you that what I shall say will be honest and sincere and not the usual flattery found in annuals.

Next let me say that I do not have to be forced to write this, for it gives me much pleasure to do it.

Never can I think of my junior year in college without thinking of the girl I dated. And it will always be a very pleasant thought, for there are many reasons that make it pleasant. Probably the thing that stands out strongest in my mind is your unquestionable character. Never have I doubted your morals or set of values. They have always been Christian and a constant source of inspiration. Something rare in the modern girl. You will never know how thrilled I was the night you dedicated your life completely to Christ. It was certainly enriching to my Christian experience. May His presence ever be your guide.

Then I think of your pleasant personality - the ease, and poise, and grace which is yours in making people like you. That, too, is an asset to successful living.

My admiration goes out to you for your conscientiousness about your obligations. Never are you negligent of your responsibility, but always constant in study, devotion to God, and loyalty to friends. Something for which you must be commended.

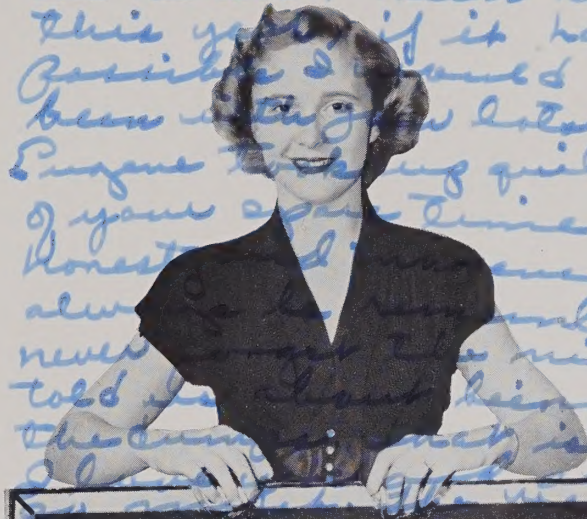

These are few of the fine qualities you have. There are many more; but all in all, Rosemary, in Wesleyan terms, "you are a good kid," - in Georgia terms, "you are 'sompin' nice," - and in my terms, "What more could a man want to make him happy?"

Love,
Eugene

Dear Rosemary,

Haven't we had some wonderful times this year. Some of them have been good but we've had few bad ones. I'm so glad I could know you this year. Even though we haven't been too close this year, if it had been possible I would have been with you lots more. Seems Eugene took up quite a bit of your spare time. Your honest and sincere will always be remembered. I'll never forget the night you told me about being down in the dumps. That is one reason I love you. The way you really did something to you. That is the way I want you to always be. You've influenced my life and if I have the right to say so - you've been twice the girl since. Would love to visit you in Queensland next year. Write me, and come to see me please.

THE CHAMPS

The Kentucky Wesleyan Panthers, under the able guidance of Coach Wilson, climaxed one of their best seasons in the history of the school as they wrapped up their second straight Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference crown by up-ending Centre college in the finals of the league tourney at Danville, 66-50.

Wesleyan's successful defense of the loop title in the tourney produced three more wins for the Purple and White cagers and gave them a formidable 12-0 mark in the conference for the entire season's play. The Panthers closed their season in a blaze of glory at Owensboro, wallopping Centre, 114-71, in a post-season game.

Three Panther regulars—Ed LeForge, Bill Harrell, and Norman Christopher—were named to the all-K.I.A.C. team after the finish of tourney play. It was the third straight year that Christopher has gained the honor and the second time for LeForge, the only graduating member of this season's squad.

KENTUCKY WESLEYAN

The Kentucky Wesleyan Singers hit the road annually for a tour of Kentucky schools and churches, representing our Alma Mater in a wonderful way. It takes work, and plenty of it, to turn out the type of music our Singers produce—but each and every member forgets the drudgery of rehearsals past when the time comes to stand up and sing. It's a big thrill for all concerned when we roll out the bus and tape the sign "Kentucky Wesleyan Singers" on the side. It's a week of work, thrills, songs—all rolled up into one word—FUN.

This year, Prof. Boyd Williams leads the Singers; though new, he has carved his niche on the campus in the realm of music. We'll never forget the first time in chapel when, in his beautiful tenor voice, Prof. Williams sang THE LORD'S PRAYER for us. We know, with a voice like that, Boyd Williams will do things for our Chorus this year.

SINGERS

QUARTET

Under the direction of John T. Smith, Senior music major, the Quartet has performed for churches and civic clubs all over the state. We are proud of our "golden-voiced" boys as they sing spirituals, hymns, and popular numbers! The members are George Webb, Sam Clark, Gayle Kincaid, and Bob Clendenen.

Many students take special voice lessons, and you can be sure they are called on to perform for churches, schools, clubs, and other occasions. Many take piano lessons from Mrs. Henley Moore McCready and represent the college in a grand fashion.

VOICE AND PIANO STUDENTS

... Talent and more talent! That's what we have in the music department.

LITTLE THEATRE

under the direction of Miss Lena-Mae Scott, many have "trod the boards" of the Little Theater. We can never forget the one-act play, "Many Happy Returns," nor the major production at Christmas of Dickens' "Christmas Carol."

Students and the town's folk crowd into the theater to witness the fine productions that they have come to expect from Wesleyan's actors. Hats off to the actors, stage-hands, prompters, and all who have made productions possible.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE a member of the Little Theater group is no problem for students—they all want to join. And

D E B A T E

Though the debate season is young, as the PORPHYRIAN goes to press, the debate teams have scored marked success in the realm of forensics. Chief among their accomplishments, thus far, has been the winning of the Kentucky Colleges' Debate Tournament.

The SPORTS in focus

Coach Robert R. (Bullet) Wilson has made Kentucky Wesleyan, the smallest liberal arts college in the state, the proud owner of one of the best and most-feared little college teams along this section of the Ohio River valley.

Coach Wilson, who gained his nickname while a standout performer with the Wesleyan teams of the 1930 era, is now in his seventh season at the helm of the Panther basketball fortunes. He has marked up an amazing record during those seven seasons.

Midway of the season just past, Wesleyan's record with present Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference teams since Wilson has been head cager tutor stood at 50 wins and only 7 setbacks. The Panthers annually cause trouble when they step out of their own league to do battle with such national court titans as Western State, and the Universities of Louisville and Cincinnati.

"Bullet's" capable leadership was rewarded last season when the Panthers carried home the K.I.A.C. championship. At this writing the Purple team seems headed for another loop crown with a spotless league mark.

Coach Wilson graduated from Wesleyan in 1931. In college he earned letters in football, basketball, and baseball. He was an All-State selection in basketball in 1929 and 1930 and was honorable mention on the All-S.I.A.A. cage team in 1929.

"Bullet" started his coaching career at Minerva High school in 1931, and six years later he moved to Clark County high in Winchester. He came to Wesleyan in 1943.

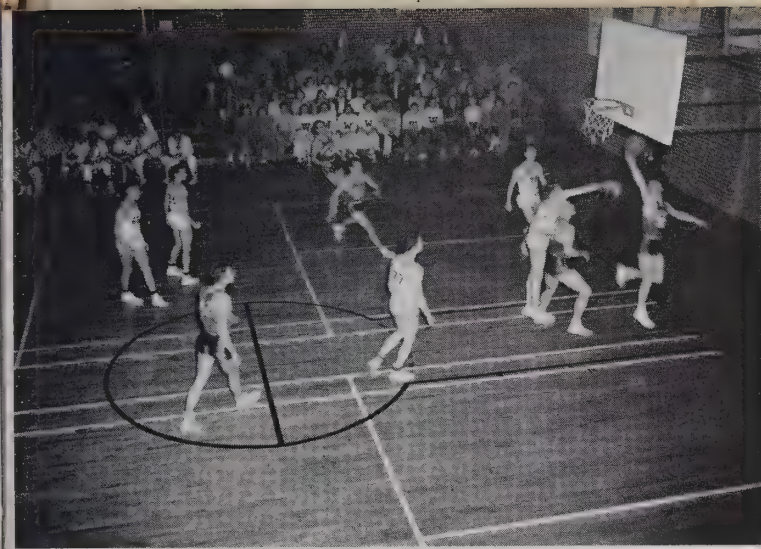

Kentucky Wesleyan College is located in one of the nation's top red-hot regions of basketball. The Panther school is situated in the Blue Grass section of Kentucky where boys start learning to dribble a basketball almost before they learn to walk.

The Panthers of Coach "Bullet" Wilson add no little to the dazzling dribbling dervish of the area. Annually Wesleyan produces a court combination that fast breaks and shoots with a crowd-pleasing spirit.

BASKETBALL

This season the Purple and White quintet again performed in great style. Although Coach Wilson lost four valuable lettermen by graduation from last year's K.I.A.C. champions, the Panther mentor floored a team that at the mid-way point of the season had gained plaudits as the best five in the loop.

Although not able to compete with some of the larger schools in securing player material, Wesleyan manages to attract some of the best of the lesser publicized high schoolers of the state to the campus. The performances of some of the Wesleyan stars in recent years has caused some of the coaches of the larger schools to sigh and say, "how did I miss that boy."

Headed by Guards Ed LeForge and Bill Harrell, the Panthers racked up seven victories in their first ten starts of the season. At mid-season the Wesleyan conference record was unmarred, and the three defeats suffered were at the hands of Morehead State and the powerful University of Louisville and University of Cincinnati quintets.

One of the sweetest first-half schedule wins of the Panthers this season was a 72-47 home-floor demolishing of Georgetown, Wesleyan's top rival in the loop. The Wesleyan hoopsters scored other early season league wins over Union and Centre.

Doing the bulk of the court work for the Panthers this season were Forwards Hilton (Bobo) Daniel and Clarence (Rusty) Shearer, All-K.I.A.C. center Norman Christopher, and Harrell and LeForge. Burnie Myers, a regular forward, was lost to the U.S. Air Force after the first seven games.

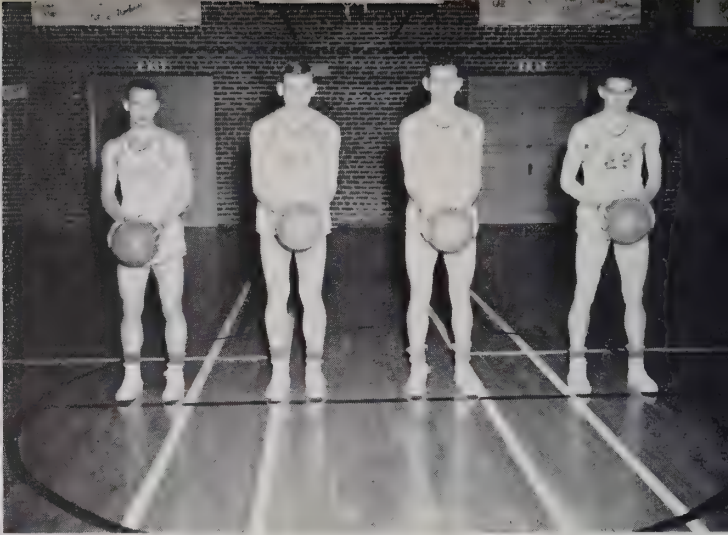

Capable reserve roles were turned in by forwards Allie Curtis and Bob Kerr, pivotman Dave Daniel, and guards Lou Westerfield and Dick Shaw. Freshman cagers showing well in practice and action included Mervil Phelps, Franklin Baulch, Don Karr, Dan Ferris, and Bob Tomes.

At mid-season, Harrell was pacing the Panther scoring with 173 points in 10 games. LeForge was second with 140 points in a like number of contests.

Winning or losing, the Panther quintet always has been a great credit to the college. The players possess a keen fighting spirit, and they are acclaimed everywhere for their fine sportsmanship.

W O M E N ' S S P O R T S

The Women's Athletic Association, under the capable guidance of Mrs. Earl Cantler, sponsors sports activities throughout the entire year for participation of all girls at the college.

The board is primarily concerned with intramural competition on the campus, and tournaments are held each fall for tennis, field hockey, and softball. Picnics and hikes are enjoyed, too.

During the winter months activity takes place indoors, with badminton, volley ball, and ping-pong being the main events.

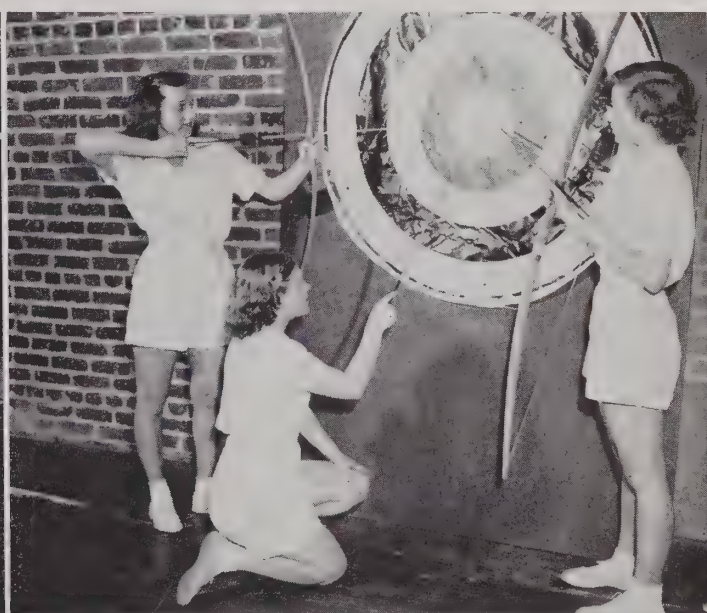

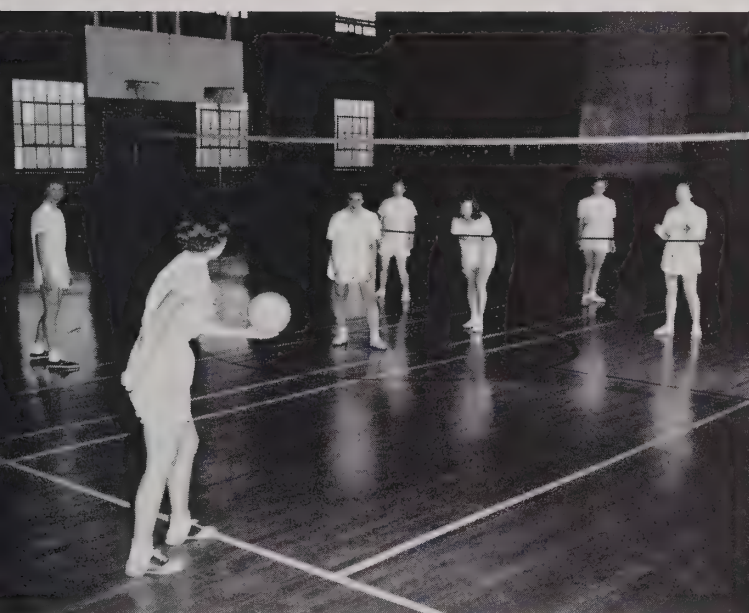

With spring, swimming and archery are in focus, thus creating a well-rounded sports program for women.

Under this intramural system, letters are awarded to participating girls on a point system.

Wesleyan's W.A.A. board is affiliated with the State association, W.R.A. These girls annually compete in various events at the Kentucky College's Play Day. Last year several of "Meanie's" girls won firsts in Play Day activities.

Rhythm classes help the girls to develop poise, body grace, and rhythm.

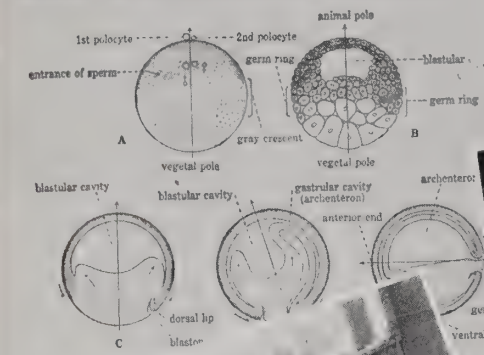

FIG. 263.—Diagram of gastrulation and neurulation. The diagram shows the stages of gastrulation and neurulation, including the formation of the blastula, gastrula, and neurula. The labels indicate the animal pole, vegetal pole, blastular cavity, germ ring, archenteron, notochord, dorsal lip, and blastula.

With the formation of the notochord, the germ ring, and the endoderm, the body plan is established. The notochord is a rodlike structure that runs the length of the body. It is formed from the cells of the vegetal hemisphere. The germ ring is a ring of cells that surrounds the blastular cavity. It is formed from the cells of the animal hemisphere. The endoderm is the innermost layer of cells. It is formed from the cells of the vegetal hemisphere.

no means of perceiving them. He has to translate all that of vave knowledge into terms of his own experience—that is, into the results of sense perceptions.

Tactile Organs.—In vertebrates practically the entire surface of the body is tactile, although not everywhere with equal intensity. The sense of touch, including the senses of pressure, temperature, and pain, is possessed not only by the surfaces of the body but also more or less acutely by the regions, such as the linings of the mouth and nasal cavities. The skin is permeated with a network of sensory fibers some of which terminate in free, filamentous end-organs in specially modified end-organs of varying types only called tactile corpuscles, or in certain cases given specific names (Fig. 253). Although no specially temperature end-organs have ever been discovered, it is shown that special skin is sensitive to cold (Fig. 254).

Autographs

Dear Rosemary,

you'll never know
how much you have helped me with my Christian experience. Keep as nice and sweet as you are and you'll always have success. "Keep true to Jesus" is my prayer for you.

Love ya,
Nannah
"Mae"

Dear Rosemary,

I never will forget
the good times we've had here in Sr. House. Will you? I'm really glad you're going to be at home with Whilhelmina and you're a sweet girl and you've been a big help me.

Will you ever forget
the many nights I kept you awake in your room waiting on Pat? I just can't write everything;
but I wish you lots of luck always. See ya
next yr. Love ya
Pat

Rosemary:

I sure have enjoyed being associated with you, it has been swell knowing you, and shall always remember you.
I really do like Russellville, it is a fine town. God Bless you Rosemary and if you go to Owensboro will see you then. Till then Remember me.
and don't let my memory sail out of your heart and mind, even though old sailors never die but sail away.
And when your life on earth is ended
and no more the path you trod, may your name in Gold be written in the Autograph of God.

Your Friend always Richard Scott.

Rosemary.

I've become very fond of you in these past few months - I'm so glad you were one of the Sr. House girls. You are sure to have a successful and happy life because you are in the service of God. - Bob and I want you and Eugene to visit us in Owensboro!

Love ya!
